

Volunteer with Stepping Stones to teach English to migrant and disadvantaged children in Shanghai

Do you want to create a better future for migrant and disadvantaged children in Shanghai? Or meet like-minded volunteers from around the world and discover your inner talent in teaching and mentoring?

Stepping Stones is now recruiting enthusiastic volunteers to join its Shanghai English Teaching Program to teach English to migrant and disadvantaged children in Shanghai. English is one of the three core subjects in the Chinese curriculum and it poses the most challenges to rural and migrant children.

Do you...

- speak English fluently and confidently?
- enjoy interacting with children?
- want to improve the education and general welfare of disadvantaged children?

Join us and make a difference! We warmly welcome volunteers from all backgrounds.

Key Program Information:

- 10 – 30 students per class at community centers.
- Fall semester: Sep 2021 – Jan 2022.
- Classes take place once a week on weekends or weekdays.
- 1 to 1.5 hours per lesson at community centers
- Lesson plans are provided.
- Team up with at least one volunteer to teach (generally class is split to small groups led by each volunteer)
- Minimum 18 years old (16 years old and above can be considered with parental consent).

Minimum Volunteering Commitment:

- Once a week for this fall with a minimum of 8 lessons teaching

Stepping Stones will provide an online orientation and a training session which cover information on migrant children and their education, lesson plans, teaching tips, and classroom management techniques.

Interested in volunteering with us? Hear what our volunteers said about their volunteering experiences here and register as a volunteer!

Website: www.steppingstoneschina.net